Chinese Studies Stylesheet 320

The study of Chinese, Mandarin Chinese, is a long term project. It will bring you in touch with the language and the culture of well over 20% of humanity and a major influence on world history. For this reason, I always recommend learning Chinese characters if you are going to learn the language. Once you decide to study Chinese characters, work at them every day. Devote half an hour to an hour a day just on learning characters. Use whatever method you want, but set aside dedicated character learning time every day. Why study Chinese Studies at Leiden University? Designed for ambitious and talented students, the master's in Chinese Studies, a specialisation of the MA in Asian Studies, brings you the best of Leiden's acclaimed faculty and resources. You will study China from a broad range of perspectives using a comparative and global viewpoint. Please note: The two-year Chinese Studies programme has a maximum of 30 places; the Admissions Board ranks the requests on the fulfilment of the Admission Requirements. CCSS3101 Media China/CHES5110 Selected Themes on Chinese Media: Digital China - 1980s till Today will be offered in 2020-21 Term 2.
