Description:

Hilda can never sit still for long without setting off on another adventure. She can't resist exploring her enchanting world a place where trolls walk, crows speak, and mountains move. The magic and folklore of the wild, windswept North come alive in this book about an adventurous little girl and her habit of befriending anything, no matter how curious it might seem. While on an expedition to illustrate the magical creatures of the mountains around her home, Hilda spots a mountain troll. As the blue-haired explorer sits and sketches, she slowly starts to nod off. By the time she wakes up, the troll has totally disappeared and, even worse, Hilda is lost in a snowstorm. On her way home, Hilda befriends a lonely wooden man, and narrowly avoids getting squashed by a lost giant. This brand new paperback edition of Hilda and the Troll offers a fresh chance to read the very first outing in Luke Pearson's ever-popular series of magical Hilda adventures. Luke Pearson, author of "Hilda and the Midnight Giant, Hilda and the Bird Parade, Hilda and the Black Hound" and "Everything We Miss," has fast become one of the leading talents of the UK comics scene. "Hilda and the Midnight

Giant" was selected as one of 2012's twenty-five best illustrated children's books by Publishers Weekly magazine. The book also won the Young People's Comic Award at the 2012 British Comic Awards."

"Hilda and the Troll tells the story of an artistic Scandinavian girl as she explores the unknown wilderness around her house, encountering a blue fox with antlers, the mysterious 'wood man,' and (you guessed it!) a troll. The art is as whimsical as the protagonist, and the bright colors enhance this comic book's magical-realistic effect." As Hilda and other characters gather information from the radio, books, maps, and the world around them, they pursue adventures, make art, and connect with other characters. Additionally readers have their own map to look at and can use the pictures to decode parts of the story. Readers can also find hidden mythical woodland creatures.
