

The International Trust

3rd Edition

General Editor

Hon Mr Justice David Hayton
Justice of the Caribbean Court of Justice

Published by
Jordan Publishing Limited
21 St Thomas Street
Bristol BS1 6JS

Whilst the publishers and the author have taken every care in preparing the material included in this work, any statements made as to the legal or other implications of particular transactions are made in good faith purely for general guidance and cannot be regarded as a substitute for professional advice. Consequently, no liability can be accepted for loss or expense incurred as a result of relying in particular circumstances on statements made in this work.

© Jordan Publishing Ltd 2011

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any way or by any means, including photocopying or recording, without the written permission of the copyright holder, application for which should be addressed to the publisher.

Crown Copyright material is reproduced with kind permission of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office.

British Library Cataloguing-in-Publication Data

A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.

ISBN 978 1 84661 272 5

Typeset by Letterpart Ltd, Reigate, Surrey

Printed in Great Britain by CPI Antony Rowe, Chippenham and Eastbourne

CONTENTS

Preface	xxvii
Introduction	xxix
Table of Cases	xxxiii
Table of National Legislation	lxix
Table of Conventions and EU Materials	xcix

Part I

Trusts and the Conflict of Laws

Chapter 1

Jurisdiction and the Enforcement of Foreign Judgments in Transnational Trusts Litigation

Jonathan Harris

Introduction	3
Jurisdiction under the European Regime	6
Introduction	6
The Brussels I Regulation and the Lugano Convention: which scheme applies?	8
Intra-United Kingdom jurisdiction disputes	8
Scope of discussion	9
Interpretative methodology	9
A hierarchical system	9
(1) Is the dispute within the Regulation? (Art 1)	10
(2) Does any Convention exist to which the Member States are parties and which governs jurisdiction and/or the enforcement of foreign judgments? (Art 71)	13
(3) Do the courts of any Member States have exclusive jurisdiction regardless of the defendant's domicile? (Art 22)	13
(a) Rights in rem – trusts of land	14
(b) Tenancies	15
(c) Other bases of exclusive jurisdiction	16
(4) Will the defendant submit to the courts of a Member State? (Art 24)	16
(5) Do the insurance contract provisions apply? (Arts 8–14)	16
(6) Do the consumer contract provisions apply? (Arts 15–17)	17
(7) Do the employment contract provisions apply (Arts 18–21)?	17
(8) Is there a valid choice of court agreement for the courts of a Member State in a trust instrument? (Art 23)	17

(9) Is the defendant domiciled in a Member State? (Art 2)	20
(a) The domicile provisions – individuals	20
(b) The domicile provisions – companies	20
(10) Can a defendant who is domiciled in a Member State be sued in another Member State? (Arts 5 and 6)	21
Equitable obligations – other heads of special jurisdiction	24
Matters relating to contract	24
Matters relating to tort, delict or quasi-delict	25
Claims arising from branch or agency	27
Multiple actions – Art 6	27
(11) Can prima facie jurisdiction of the English courts be removed? (Arts 27 and 28)	29
(a) Identical parties/actions	30
(b) Related actions	31
(12) Does an English court with jurisdiction have a residual discretion not to exercise it?	32
(a) Jurisdiction is taken under the Regulation rules and it is sought to stay in favour of a non-Member State	32
(b) Jurisdiction is taken under the Regulation rules and it is sought to stay in favour of a Member State	34
(c) Jurisdiction is taken under common law rules pursuant to Article 4 and it is sought to stay in favour of a non-Member State	34
(d) Jurisdiction is taken under common law rules pursuant to Art 4 and it is sought to stay in favour of a Member State	34
Tactical conclusion on the Brussels I Regulation	34
Future prospects: the Commission Proposal to reform the Judgments Regulation	35
Jurisdiction at common law	37
Service as of right	37
Staying proceedings commenced as of right	39
The first limb	40
The second limb	41
Staying proceedings where the parties have contractually agreed to litigate in a non-Member State of the European Union	42
Service out of the jurisdiction with the court's permission	43
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1 – provisions relating to trusts	43
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(1)	44
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(2)	44
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(3)	45
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(11)	45
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(12)	46
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(10)	46
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(15)	46
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(16)	47
Other potentially relevant provisions	48
CPR, PD 6B, para 3.1(6)–(8) (Claims in relation to contracts)	48

The exercise of the court's discretion to permit service of the claim form outside the jurisdiction	50
Non-justiciability	51
Reverse forum shopping	51
Anti-suit injunctions	51
Where proceedings may be brought overseas or in England	52
The English courts are not available	53
No other courts are available	53
The natural forum lies in another overseas state	54
The overseas proceedings are in breach of an English jurisdiction clause	54
The declaration of non-liability	55
Interim relief	56
Substantive proceedings are in England	56
Jurisdiction to grant interim relief in support of overseas proceedings	56
Background	56
Jurisdiction where substantive proceedings in another Member State	57
Jurisdiction where substantive proceedings in a non-Member State	58
The exercise of the court's discretion whether to grant the relief	58
Enforcement of interim awards	59
Interim orders	59
Asset freezing order	59
Search order	60
Future developments: the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements	60
Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments	65
Recognition or enforcement?	65
The Brussels I Regulation rules	65
Defences – lack of jurisdictional competence	66
Other defences – Art 34	67
Recognition would be manifestly contrary to English public policy	67
The judgment was given in default of appearance and the defendant was not served with the document which instituted the proceedings or with an equivalent document in sufficient time and in such a way as to enable him to arrange for his defence, unless the defendant failed to commence proceedings to challenge the judgment when it was possible for him to do so	68
The judgment is irreconcilable with a judgment between the same parties in the court in which recognition is sought	69
The judgment is irreconcilable with an earlier judgment given in another Member State or in a third State involving the same cause of action and between the same parties,

provided that the earlier judgment fulfils the conditions necessary for recognition in the Member State addressed	70
Treaties with non-Member States	70
No review on the substance	70
The enforcement procedure	70
The European Enforcement Order	71
Common law	72
The jurisdictional competence of a foreign court	73
The defendant was present and/or resident in the overseas jurisdiction	73
Submission	74
A mirror of common law jurisdiction rules?	75
Judgment must be a final and conclusive judgment on the merits	75
Further conditions for enforcement	76
The judgment must be for a fixed sum of money	76
The English court will not enforce a foreign penal, revenue or public law judgment	77
The judgment must not order the payment of multiple damages	77
Where a judgment relates to rights in immovable property, that property must be situated in country of origin	77
Defences to recognition and enforcement	78
The judgment was procured by the claimant's fraud	78
The judgment was in breach of natural justice	79
Recognition would be contrary to public policy	79
The judgment was in breach of a choice of court or arbitration agreement	80
The judgment is inconsistent with another judgment	80
The impact of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)	80
The effect of foreign judgments	81
Cause of action estoppel	81
Issue estoppel	82
The statutory schemes	83
The Administration of Justice Act 1920	83
The Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act 1933	83
Intra-UK judgments	84
Arbitration	85
Law governing the arbitration agreement	85
Law governing the proceedings	85
Breach of the arbitration agreement	86
Enforcement of foreign arbitral awards	86
Which scheme?	86
Grounds for refusing or postponing recognition and enforcement	87
Jurisdiction and enforcement of foreign judgments in offshore States	88
The Bahamas	88
British Virgin Islands	89
Cayman Islands	93

Isle of Man	99
Jersey	101
Guernsey	109
Conclusion on offshore jurisdictions	112
Conclusion	113

Chapter 2

Launching the Rocket—Capacity and the Creation of Inter Vivos

Transnational Trusts 115

Jonathan Harris

Introduction	115
What is excluded from the Hague Trusts Convention?	116
Capacity	116
Whose capacity?	116
Declarations of trust	117
Constitution of trusts	117
Other matters	118
What is capacity?	118
Status and capacity	118
Essential validity and capacity	118
General	118
Characterisation	119
Characterisation entirely by English domestic law categories	119
Characterisation according to the categories of the governing law	120
Characterisation prima facie made according to English law, but regard given to how the matter is treated in the State whose law might stand to be applied	120
A meaningful distinction?	120
The choice of law rule for capacity questions	121
Capacity and other branches of the conflict of laws	121
Contracts	122
Capacity to transfer property	126
Land	126
Tangible movables	126
Intangible movables	126
Trusts and capacity	127
One question or two?	127
The transfer of property	127
The creation of the trust structure	128
Declarations of trust	129
Corporate settlors	129
Conclusion	130
The vesting of property in the trustee	130
Introduction	130
One question or two?	130
Declarations of trust	131

Immovable property	132
The general rule	132
Renvoi	132
Tangible movable property	133
What does 'lex situs' mean?	133
Exceptions	134
Renvoi	134
Intangible movable property	135
The situs	135
Assignment	135
Assignability	135
The assignment of the debt	136
Title to the property	136
Conclusion	137
Capacity and the transfer of property in offshore jurisdictions	137
British Virgin Islands	138
Cayman Islands	144
Bermuda	147
Jersey	149
Guernsey	151
Isle of Man	156
Conclusion and tactical observation	159
Chapter 3
International Recognition of Trusts	161
David Hayton
The background problems	161
The Hague Convention	162
Signatories and ratifiers	162
Purpose of the Hague Convention	163
Deliberately flexible 'grey' areas	163
The 'shapeless' trust	164
Scope of the Hague Convention	165
Law applicable to the trust	169
Express or implied choice by settlor	169
The objectively applicable law	170
Recognition of trusts and their characteristics	171
Limitations upon application of the trust law	174
The facilitative approach to the Convention	177
Better prospects if a testator can by will expressly choose his habitual residence or nationality law as lex successionis	177
Where Trusts Convention inapplicable	179
Civil law jurisdictions	179
Introduction	179
Inter vivos trusts	181
Characterisation or transposition into civil law analogues	181
Applicable law	184

Testamentary trusts	185
Characterisation or transposition into civil law analogues	185
Applicable law	186
Common law jurisdictions	187
Introduction	187
Applicable law	187
Distinction between matters of validity and of administration	188
Express or implied choice of law	189
The objectively applicable law	189
Limits upon the law applicable to the trust	190

Part II
Specific Issues

Chapter 4
Protectors 195

Emily Campbell, Robert Ham QC, Jonathan Hilliard and Michael Tennet QC
Introduction	195
Duties of protector under English law	198
Duties of protector: case-law from other jurisdictions	201
Bermuda: Von Knierem v Bermuda Trust Co Ltd	201
Isle of Man: Steele v Paz Limited , in Re Osiris Trustees Limited and in Re Papadimitriou	202
The Bahamas: Rawson Trust v Perlman	203
Jersey: Re the settlements made between X and Charles Richard Blamfield and Abacus (C) Limited	204
Jersey: Re Bird Charitable Trust and Bird Purpose Trust	204
Jersey: Centre Trustees (CI) Ltd v Pabst and Van Rooyen	204
Jersey: The M Settlement	205
Cayman Islands: Re Circle Trust, International Trustee v Wong	205
Control of protector	205
Protectors' indemnities and exoneration	208
Protectors' standing to bring legal proceedings	209
Limits on the settlor's ability to choose what powers to give to the protector	210

Chapter 5
Purpose Trusts 213

Adam Doyle and Matthew Carn
Introduction	213
England and Wales	213
The general rule	213
Valid non-charitable purpose trusts	216
Monuments and graves	217
Masses	217
Specific animals	217
Unincorporated associations	218

Miscellaneous cases	219
Reasons assigned for invalidity of non-charitable purpose trusts	220
The beneficiary principle	220
Uncertainty and impossibility	228
Delegation of power of testamentary disposition	228
Public policy	229
Perpetuity	230
Alternative means of effectuating non-charitable purposes	231
Quistclose trusts	232
An alternative analysis of non-charitable purpose trusts	247
Summary of the position in English law	259
The Bahamas	261
Authorised purpose trusts	262
Nature of the purpose	262
Other requirements for an authorised purpose trust	264
Application of the PTA	265
‘Mixed’ trusts	265
Allocation among purposes	268
Uncertainty	269
Enforcement	270
The authorised applicant	270
Who may be an ‘authorised applicant’?	272
Supporting role of the Attorney-General	272
No authorised applicant	273
Supplemental orders	273
Reformation cy-près	274
Termination of the trust	275
Trustees	276
Specific statutory duties of trustees	277
Penalties for breach	277
Perpetuity	278
Land	279
Miscellaneous	279
Belize	280
Bermuda	284
Meaning of a ‘purpose trust’	284
Enforcement	286
Perpetuity	288
Variation of a purpose trust	289
Land	289
Purpose trusts pre-September 1998	290
British Virgin Islands	291
Meaning of a s 84 purpose trust	291
Meaning of a s 84A purpose trust	294
Enforcement	294
Enforcement of a s 84 purpose trust	294
Enforcement of a s 84A purpose trust	296
Designated person	298

Duties of the enforcer	301
Termination and disposal of surplus assets	303
Power to vary purposes of the trust	303
Effect of satisfying the statutory conditions	304
Relationship with charitable trusts	305
The Cayman Islands	306
Trusts subject to STAR	306
Objects of special trusts	308
Cy-près application	309
Enforcement	310
Nature of a STAR trust	313
Unlawful acceptance	315
Trusteeship	315
Land	316
Cook Islands	316
Meaning of ‘international trust’	317
Perpetuity period	317
International charitable trusts	320
Purpose trusts	321
Cyprus	322
Meaning of ‘international trust’	322
International charitable trusts	323
International purpose trusts	323
Perpetuity and accumulation periods	324
Confidentiality	325
The Isle of Man	325
Requirements of a ‘purpose trust’	325
Designated person	326
Enforcer	328
Jersey	329
Trusts and purpose trusts	329
Failure or termination of trusts	332
Resignation and removal of enforcer	332
Registration and filing	334
Labuan	334
Existence of a ‘trust’ and an ‘offshore trust’	334
Creation of an offshore trust	336
Charitable and non-charitable purpose trusts	337
Enforcement	338
Registration	340
Appendix: The Question of Recognition of Enforcers of Offshore Trusts in England and Wales	341
Chapter 6
Asset Protection Trusts	345
Alastair Hudson
Introduction	345
The nature of asset protection trusts	345

Foundational issues with asset protection trusts	349
The structure of this chapter	351
England and Wales	353
Statutory provisions	354
The 1571 Act and s 172 of the Law of Property Act 1925	355
The nature of the property within the statutes	355
Types of dispositions falling within the statutes	356
Fraudulent intent	357
Burden of proof	360
Proving an intent to defraud	361
The ‘badges of fraud’	363
Future or subsequent creditors	365
Embarking on trade or other hazardous venture	370
Contingent liabilities and unascertained creditors	377
Existing debts and contingent liabilities	378
Protection of bona fide purchasers	382
Valuable consideration	382
Good consideration	384
Good faith	384
Section 42 of the Bankruptcy Act 1914	385
‘Settlement’	386
Property covered by the section	387
Consideration	387
‘Void’	390
Solvency of the settlor	392
The Insolvency Act 1986	392
Transactions at an undervalue and preferences in the event of bankruptcy	394
Transactions defrauding creditors	403
Those who may apply for an order under s 423	406
Provision which may be made by order under s 423	407
‘For the purpose of’	410
Quistclose trusts	416
Public policy	417
Domicile of a trust	418
Reciprocal enforcement of insolvency laws and orders	418
Other considerations	429
Constructive trusteeship	429
Theft, criminal fraud and conspiracy	435
Foreign jurisdictions	439
Introduction	439
The context in which the foreign jurisdictions operate	439
Jurisdictions similar to England and Wales	440
Jurisdictions with asset protection legislation	441
The changing context of the law in offshore jurisdictions	442
The international context of change in ‘tax havens’	442
Financial regulation	444

Bahamas	445
Introduction	445
Insolvency legislation	445
Financial and trust regulation	453
Belize	454
Bermuda	458
Financial and trust regulation	466
British Virgin Islands	466
Financial and trust regulation	469
Cayman Islands	470
On bankruptcy	470
Irrespective of bankruptcy	471
Financial and trust regulation	473
Cook Islands	473
Financial and trust regulation	488
Cyprus	489
Financial regulation	491
Gibraltar	491
Isle of Man	495
Jersey	497
(i) Does Jersey law recognise the ability to trace assets and, if so, in what circumstances?	502
(ii) Does Jersey law recognise a claim in restitution even where there is no fault on the part of an innocent recipient?	506
(iii) Although the Jersey law recognises a right of action to set aside gifts made in fraud of creditors, what are the limits of and principles underlying such an action?	508
(a) Does the claim of a creditor have to predate the transaction under attack?	509
(b) When does a person become a creditor?	510
Is insolvency on the part of a debtor required? If so at what stage?	511
How was insolvency to be measured?	512
The difference between transactions ‘lucrative’ and ‘onéreuse’	512
What is the required state of mind on the part of the debtor?	512
The nature of the claim – possible defences	514
What is the limitation period?	514
Summary of the law on claim (iii)	515
Turks and Caicos Islands	516
Dispositions subject to the 1998 Ordinance	517
Who may apply to the court?	518
Time-limit	519
Powers of the court	519
Requirement of due diligence	520
Miscellaneous	521

Chapter 7

Trading Trusts, Trustees’ Liabilities and Creditors

David Hayton

What is a trading trust?	523
Partnership dangers	523
Trust has no legal personality	524
Trading trust structures	525
Dominant tax considerations	525
Trustee's personal liability	526
Contractual restrictions upon liability	526
Trustee's right of indemnity	529
Proprietary right in the nature of a lien	529
Extent of right	529
Limitations on the right of indemnity	530
Personal right	531
Creditor's rights of subrogation	532
Right in the nature of a lien	532
Personal right	533
Exclusion of rights	533
Bankruptcy or winding up of trustee	534
Position of directors of corporate trustee	534
Giving security over trust assets	536
Precautions for creditors especially lenders	537

Chapter 8Payment by Trustees of Foreign Taxes 541Christopher Sly and Marcus Parker*

Introduction	541
Change in judicial attitude?	541
The nature of the non-enforceability rule	542
Limitations on the scope of the rule	543
Judicial limitations	543
Limitations under domestic and international legislation	547
Legislation relating to criminal proceedings	547
Insolvency legislation	547
The Mutual Assistance Directive and the Mutual Assistance Recovery Directive	549
OECD/EC Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters (1988)	550
Money laundering legislation	550
Specific Cross Border Agreements on Tax Cooperation	552
Circumstances in which trustees can, or should, provide funds to discharge a non-enforceable foreign tax	553
Payment required to achieve a fair and proper administration	553
Payment where liability can be enforced in a foreign jurisdiction	557
Tax paid under legislation forming part of the proper law of the trust	559
Tax paid under a dispositive power to benefit a beneficiary	559
Payment by trustees to indemnify settlor	560
Tax paid for the benefit or protection of trust property	560

Express powers to pay foreign taxes	561
-------------------------------------	-----

Chapter 9

Disclosure of Information by Trustees 563

Emily Campbell and Jonathan Hilliard

Introduction	563
Juridical basis	565
What information must the trustees disclose?	569
Who is entitled to information concerning the trust?	571
Defences to disclosure	573
Can the trust instrument limit or remove the trustees' disclosure obligations?	575
Disclosure pursuant to procedural rules of the court	576
Specific statutory provisions	577
Anguilla	578
Australia	579
The Bahamas	579
Barbados	583
Belize	584
Bermuda	584
The British Virgin Islands	584
Brunei Darussalam	585
The Cayman Islands	585
The Cook Islands	586
Cyprus	587
Guernsey	587
Israel	589
Jersey	589
Labuan	589
Liechtenstein	591
Mauritius	591
Nauru	592
New Zealand	592
Panama	593
Seychelles	593
South Africa	593
St Vincent and the Grenadines	594
The Turks and Caicos Islands	595
United States of America	595
Other jurisdictions	595

Chapter 10

Shams, Revocable Trusts and Retention of Control 597

Geraint Thomas and David Hayton

Shams	598
Meaning of 'sham'	598
Distinguishing shams from effective transactions	600
Shams and tax avoidance	601

Shams and improper motives	602
Shams and ineffective attempts to defeat others	602
Shams and transactions at an undervalue or intended to defraud creditors	603
Revocable trusts	604
Proving a sham: relevant evidence	605
Consequences of finding that a trust is a sham	607
Reservation of much control by the settlor under wide powers in the trust instrument	608
Retention of control affirmed under specific offshore legislative provisions	610
Other ways for the settlor to have much control	614
Chapter 11
Trusts, Trustees and the UK Anti Financial Crime Regime	615
Edward Reed and Rachel Steeden
Introduction	615
What is money laundering?	617
A brief history: 'orthodox' money laundering	618
The UK regime	619
A particular concern: tax evasion	619
Other jurisdictions, other definitions	621
The POCA and TA Offences	621
Breadth of the offences	621
Elements common to all of the offences	621
Section 327: Concealing etc	623
Section 328: Arrangements	623
Section 329: Acquisition, use and possession	624
Penalties	624
Derivative POCA offences: the disclosure regime	624
The statutory context: relationship with the primary offences	624
The nature of the failure to disclose offences and defences	625
Section 333A: Tipping off	626
How the rules work in practice: consents and disclosures	627
Specific regime for the regulated sector: the Money Laundering Regulations 2007	628
Part 2 (regulations 5–18): customer due diligence	628
Part 3 (regs 19–21): record-keeping, procedures and training	631
Part 4 (regs 22–35): supervision and registration	631
A footnote: the international picture – theoretical and practical considerations	632
The international framework	632
Countries and territories with equivalent legislation	632
Useful links	634
Chapter 12
Trusts and Finance Law	635

Alastair Hudson

Introduction	635
The scope of this essay	635
The argument of this essay	636
The inter-action of trusts law and finance law	639
The structure of the law of finance	639
The FSMA 2000 regime for financial regulation	640
The circumstances in which trustees will be regulated under FSMA 2000	642
Other circumstances in which trustees, agents and financial intermediaries will fall to be regulated under FSMA 2000	645
The FSA Principles for Businesses	646
Conduct of Business Rules	648
FSA regulation of the manner in which investment business is conducted by professional investment advisers	648
Client classification	648
The best interests principle	649
The best execution principle	649
Other regulatory obligations under COBS	650
Suitability	651
Money laundering regulation	652
Criminal offences under POCA 2002	652
The obligation to make disclosure to the authorities	653
Terrorist financing	654
Money Laundering Regulations 2007 and their impact on trustees and their advisors	655
Some lessons for the substantive law which flow from this discussion	657
The effect of financial regulation on the substantive law	657
The contexts in which trusts service providers may face liability	657
The growing overlap between financial regulation and the law of trusts	659
Cases synthesising regulatory standards and private law	659
‘Commercially unacceptable conduct’ as a basis for civil liability	662
Trustees’ liability in investment transactions	665
The extent of trustees’ liability in investment transactions	665
Limitation on trustees’ liability	666
The identification of loss in investment transactions	669
Dishonest assistance	670
The significance of personal liability to account as a stranger connected to a breach of fiduciary duty	670
The objective standard of dishonesty	671
The factual contexts in which dishonest assistance in financial transactions may arise	673
The liability of corporate entities for the acts of their agents	673
Investment risk and dishonesty	674
Dishonest assistance in financial transactions	675

The liability for trust service providers for dishonesty, as supplemented by financial regulation	677
Corporate liability for the dishonest assistance of an agent	680
Knowing, or unconscionable, receipt	683
The concept of knowledge	683
Knowledge as supplemented by financial regulation	686
Tracing in equity	687
Constructive trusts in financial contexts	687
Conclusion	689
Chapter 13
Vista Trusts	691
Christopher McKenzie
Background	691
Overview	691
The prudent investor rule – and its problems	692
Alternatives to VISTA	693
The VISTA approach	694
Summary of VISTA's main provisions	694
When to set up VISTA trusts	696
Where trust assets or underlying assets of a trust are to comprise shares in a trading company	696
Where the settlor is not prepared to relinquish control over administration and management	696
Where the underlying assets of the trust do not comprise a conventional conservatively-managed investment portfolio	697
Where the settlor wishes particular assets are not to be disposed of	697
Securitisations and off-balance sheet structures	698
Holding shares in private trust companies	698
Where the removal of the beneficiaries' Saunders v Vautier power and the court's power to approve variations is desirable	699
Some practical issues for the adviser	699
Permitted grounds for complaint	699
Rights to information	700
Office of director rules	700
Power to amend	701
Identification of the settlor for the purposes of the Act and the importance of preparing letters of wishes	701
Consent to the sale of shares	702
'Opting in' to the provisions of s 12 of VISTA	702
VISTA and shares in non-BVI companies	703
Recognition by foreign courts	703
Advising the settlor	703
The legitimacy of a VISTA trust	703
Consistency with the historical development of the trust	703
Judicial rejection of the argument that the duty of care is a core requirement of a trust	704
The good faith issue	705

Application of the duty of care in relation to other rights attaching to shares	705
Analogy with minority and other holdings	705
Shams and nomineehips	706
Policy considerations	706
The ‘cake and eat it’ argument	706
Director control	708
Doctrinal considerations	708
The Hague Convention	709
Settled Land Act parallels	709
Conclusion	709
Chapter 14
Forced Heirship and the Trust	711
David Hayton
Introduction	711
Reasons for restrictions	711
Succession rights	713
The trust	714
Survivability	715
Planning	716
Trustees	716
Definitions	716
Apology	717
Succession rights	718
Strict forced heirship	718
France	718
Spain	721
Scotland	721
Islamic law	721
Other states	722
Forced heirship by indefeasible shares	722
Germany	722
The United States	723
Other States	723
Judicial adjustment	723
England	723
Ireland	724
Other States	724
Notable features of succession rights	724
Conflict-of-laws rules	726
The trust	726
The problem	726
The opportunity	728
Confrontation	729
Survivability in general	729
Survivability issues	730
Significant links	732

Survivability in England	733
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	734
The settlor's title to the settled property	736
The first stage: questions of foreign law	737
The second stage: English conflict-of-laws rules	742
Validity of the disposition ('the rocket-launcher')	744
Direct enforcement of the heirs' rights	745
Claims in tort	747
Claims for restitution	747
Enforcement of foreign judgments	750
Succession law	752
Assumption of jurisdiction	752
Bars to the heirs' claim	753
Summary	753
Survivability in offshore centres	753
Group 1 – Gibraltar and Hong Kong	754
Group 2 – The Cayman Islands, the Cook Islands, and the Bahamas	755
The Cayman Islands	755
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	755
The settlor's title to the settled property	755
Validity of the transfer ('the rocket-launcher')	755
Direct enforcement of the heirs' rights	756
Claims in tort	756
Claims for restitution	756
Enforcement of foreign judgments	756
Succession law	756
Assumption of jurisdiction and bars to the heirs' claim	756
The Cook Islands	757
The Bahamas	757
Group 3 – Jersey and Guernsey	758
Jersey	758
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	758
The settlor's title to the settled property	759
Validity of the disposition ('the rocket-launcher')	759
Other survivability issues	759
Enforceability of foreign judgments	760
Guernsey	760
Group 4 – Belize, Bermuda and Cyprus (and British Virgin Islands, Barbados, Turks & Caicos Islands and Isle of Man)	762
Belize	762
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	762
The settlor's title to the settled property and validity of the rocket-launcher	762
Other survivability issues	762
Bermuda	763
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	764
The settlor's title to the settled property	764

Validity of the transfer ('the rocket-launcher')	764
Other survivability issues	764
Cyprus	767
Validity of the trust ('the rocket')	767
The settlor's title to the settled property	768
Validity of the disposition ('the rocket-launcher')	768
Other survivability issues	768
British Virgin Islands, Barbados, Turks & Caicos Islands and Isle of Man	768
Group 5 – Liechtenstein	769
Survivability in other States	769
In general	769
The United States	770
Survivability in future – the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Trusts and on their Recognition 1985	774
Planning notes	776
Planning to avoid giving the settlor's heirs any cause for complaint	776
Permitted adjustments	776
Immovables	777
Agreement with the heirs	777
Claw-back conditions	777
The draft EU Regulation on Succession	777
Planning to discourage the settlor's heirs from making a complaint	778
Agreement with the heirs	778
Heirs as beneficiaries	778
Planning to ensure survivability in the trust domicile	778
Situs of property	778
Trustee's foreign links	779
Care in the case of will-substitutes	779
Planning to encourage sympathetic treatment in other States	779
Agreement with the heirs	779
Maximise the links with the trust domicile	779
Minimise reservations	779
Immovable possibilities	779
Draft EU Regulation on Succession	780
Planning to minimise exposure to unsympathetic States	780
Avoid all significant links	780
Trustee links	780
Discretionary trusts	780
Holding companies	780
Removal at death	780
Tactical considerations	780
Information and documents	780
Trustee indemnity	781
Settlement	781
The trustee	781
Liability to the heirs	782
Duties to the beneficiaries	782

Right to remuneration and reimbursement	783
---	-----

Part III

Two Particular Jurisdictions

Chapter 15

Italy: the Trust Interno 787

Alexandra Braun

Introduction	787
The Hague Convention on Trusts and the trust interno	788
The trust interno in the Italian legal practice	793
Trust interni and their functions	793
Main features of the trust interno	795
The position of the judiciary	797
The validity of the trust interno	797
The trust interno and some fundamental principles of Italian civil law	799
The unitary notion of ownership or principle against asset segregation	800
The numerus clausus doctrine	802
Legitimate forced heirship	803
Trust interni and land registration	804
The Judiciary: concluding remarks	807
Taxation	809
Direct taxation	810
Indirect taxation	811
Legislation	813
Conclusion	816

Chapter 16

The People's Republic of China 819

Lusina Ho

Formal and substantial requirements in establishing a trust	820
The legal effects of a valid trust	823
Judicial Understanding of the Chinese Trust	824
Types of trusts	826
Duties of the trustee	827
Appointment, termination and removal of trustees	829
Rights of the settlor	829
Rights of the beneficiaries	830
Variation of a trust	831
Termination of a trust	831
Liability for a breach of trust	832

Part IV

Chapter 17

The Future of the Trust from a Worldwide Perspective 837

Donovan Waters QC

Introduction	837
The trust idea in the Commonwealth: transition and controversy	838
Uses of the common law trust concept	844
Emergence of the mainland private client tax-planned trust	848
Turbulence in the offshores	854
The civil law and the trust idea	857
The common law trust	870
The direction of the trust idea in coming years in the civil law	871
Property management structures – a functional analysis	875
Common law	880
Conclusion	885

AppendixAppendix

The Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Trusts and on their Recognition 1985	893
---	------------

Index	901
--------------	------------

The bank was created when the International Trust Company of Liberia created a commercial banking department in 1960. In 2000 the International Trust Company became the International Trust Company of Liberia. International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature - ICZN redirects here. It is also sometimes used for the International Code of Zoological Nomenclature in error. Trust (Unternehmen) - Trust International B.V. Rechtsform Kapitalgesellschaft Gründung 1981 Sitz - Deutsch Wikipedia. We are the sum of our members, the heritage trusts around the world working to preserve important places. Our programmes and resources facilitate international collaboration in the heritage sector. INTO Members. INTO is an international network of heritage trusts. Discover the organisations and people behind our global family. Explore INTO members. The Nevis International Exempt Trust Ordinance provides for the creation of various types of international trusts including Charitable Trust, Non-Charitable Trust, Spendthrift or Protective Trust and Qualified Foreign Trust. To qualify as an international trust under the Nevis International Exempt Trust Ordinance, the following criteria must be met: There must be at least one trustee, which can be a corporation incorporated under the Nevis Business Corporation Ordinance