Biography / Administrative History
Zygmunt Haupt 1907-1975, was a native of Poland. He began his career in writing and painting after abandoning earlier studies in architecture and urban planning. Following the German invasion of Poland in 1939, Mr. Haupt escaped to Hungary, then on to France and England, where he continued to serve with Polish forces until the war ended. Mr. Haupt came to the United States after the war and became a United States citizen. He worked for 18 years for the U.S. Information Agency. During that time his writings appeared in the principal Polish ?migr? journals Wiadomosci (London) and Kultura (Paris). His book, The Paper Ring, was published for the first time in Paris in 1962 and won the Kultura literary award. In 1971 he received the annual award from the Koscielski Foundation in Geneva for his contributions to the Polish literature.

Scope and Content of Collection

Zygmunt Haupt (5 March 1907, in Ułaszkowce, Podole – 10 May 1975, in Winchester, Virginia, United States) was a Polish writer and painter. His father Ludwik was a school inspector, mother was a teacher. Initially he attended a school in Tarnopol. In 1925 he graduated from Kopernik gymnasium (high school) in Lwów and later studied engineering and architecture at the Lwów Politechnic.
After the death of his father in 1928, he went to Paris, where he studied urban studies in 1931-1932 at Sorbonne. He Zygmunt Haupt's first reports and short stories were published in the daily Dziennik Polski in 1937. In 1939 he was called up to join the army and he fought as an Officer in 10th Motorized Cavalry Brigade led by Stanisław Maczek first as colonel later as a general. Following the Russian invasion of Poland he escaped with other officers, via Hungary to France. This world is made by his memoirs and thoughts, this world gives to the reader katharsis and new youth, freshness of untouched experiences and what we all seek, surprise. What else can author gives to the reader? Bibliography: Pierścień z papieru (The Parer Ring also The Ring of Paper), Paris 1963; Szpica.
