

The Mass in Time of Doubt: The Meaning of the Mass for Catholics Today. 1983. National Association of Pastoral Musicians, 1983. 9780912405001. Ralph A. Keifer

The Catholic Church does not teach that the Mass is a re-crucifixion of Christ, who does not suffer and die again in the Mass. They undermine their case against the Mass in saying this, since such an admission shows, at least, that the Last Supper was truly sacrificial. The key, though, is that they overlook that Christ said, "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). Clearly, he wasn't talking about a one-time thing. They have to keep in mind that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever" (Heb. 13:8). What Jesus did in the past is present to God now, and God can make the sacrifice of Calvary present to us at Mass. "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes" (1 Cor. 11:26). They also organize mass protests in Europe, like the one on August 29, 2020 where 12 million people signed up and several millions actually showed up. Why do these 500+ medical doctors say the pandemic is a global crime? What do they know, that we don't? One of the many protests against the "pandemic" that you will not see in the mainstream media. 2. Hundreds Of Spanish Medical Doctors Say The Pandemic Is Planned. In Spain a group of 600 medical doctors called "Doctors for Truth", made a similar statement during a press conference. How could Fauci guarantee a surprise outbreak to happen during the first term of the Trump administration? What did he know, that we don't? "Today is a day of learning for you, and I want you to pay close attention because of what you will witness today. Everything that you will experience today, you will have to share with all of humanity." I was deeply moved without understanding why, but I tried to be very attentive. The first thing I noticed was a choir of very beautiful voices that was singing as if it was far away. The Virgin Mary said: "They are the Guardian Angels of the people who are offering this Holy Mass for many intentions, those who are conscious of what this celebration means. They have something to offer the Lord." Offer yourselves at this moment; offer your sorrows, your pains, your hopes, your sadness, your joys, your petitions.
