Some kitties like vertical surfaces and others may prefer scratching horizontally. Try varying the scratching material, too.Â While the thought of having all of your meals prepared and served to you might sound appealing, your feline friend doesn't necessarily agree. Cats are predatory by nature, so help your kitty fulfill his hunting fantasies by providing him with prey-like toys (think wands with feathers and fast-moving furry toys that mimic mice). Then sit back and watch him stalk and hunt like the tiger he knows he really is! Thinkstock. Go Wild With Perches and Climbing Systems.
