Knowledge. Kolob. Korihor. God's children may receive His word directly by revelation through the Spirit or from His chosen servants (D&C 1:38). By every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live, Deut. 8:3 (Matt. 4:4; D&C 84:43-44). Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path, Ps. 119:105. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost and spake the word of God with boldness, Acts 4:31-33. The iron rod was the word of God that led to the tree of life, 1 Ne. God's Word reveals the true values by which we must live if we are to solve our massive relationship problems and the other seemingly insoluble dilemmas that threaten to overwhelm us. Test your knowledge from what you learned in Lesson 2 - The Word of God: The Foundation of Knowledge. This week on Beyond Today TV. Connect with us. This list of God's character traits has been carefully designed to help us see the meaning and importance of each trait in relation to the others. INTRO. Visual Commentary: Exodus 34:6-7. Biblical authors often referenced and quoted their favorite parts of Scripture, and the list of God's character traits found in Exodus 34:6-7 is the most repeated and re-quoted text in the Bible. The golden calf story from the book of Exodus shows us how all of humanity continually tries to worship God on our own terms. In this episode, Tim, Jon, and Carissa examine the narrative context of Exodus 34:6-7 and discover how this description of God's character is tied to the story of the golden calf. As such, the Word of God is very active. It functions to do many things, both for God and for us. In this post, we'll look at some verses that show six of the primary functions of the living and operative Word of God. 1. The Word of God testifies concerning Christ. John 5:39 says, "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is these that testify concerning Me." The first function of the Word of God is to testify concerning Christ. What this means for us: Since the Scriptures testify concerning Christ, we should focus on Him when we come to the Bible in order to get the full benefit of the Word. Before we read, we can pray, "Lord Jesus, I don't want to miss You in Your Word. I come to You right now. Help me see You on every page."
