Fill in the Blank. Three people walk into a bar . . . Sharing is caring.

Flowers and Breezes Fill in the Blank. A lot from Lydia Three Classics. Since we had such a ball chatting about our literary crushes, let's continue fun with another question about romance and books. Do any literary couples have a relationship that reminds you of your own? Whenever I read, I find some nugget of similarity between the main characters and people in my life. I recently read Captive Queen, a historical fiction based on the life of Eleanor of Aquitaine. As I dreamily paged through the book, I felt a connection with the intense romance between Eleanor and Henry. But as things quickly turned very sour for the two, I decided that Chris and I were not like them at all. So let's hear it, gals. Are there any literary couples whose relationships remind you of your own? Emma and Mr. Knightley? Arwen and Aragorn? Hermione and Ron?
