Stanford Behavioral Institute &quot;The Civic Culture (and The Civic Culture Revisited remain the best study of the comparative political culture in our time. The list has a strong focus on political theory, as you might expect, and therefore includes mostly books on politics, liberty, justice, property, rights, law, and the enforcement of the law by the state. Many works by the great modern political thinkers are included, such as those of Rawls, Habermas, Chomsky, Cohen, Taylor, Roemer, Gilligan, Sandel, Waltz, Foucault, and James Scott. But the list also includes many of the classics of the past, such as those by Plato, Mill, Humboldt, Ferguson, Marx, Hamilton, Madison, Jay, and Hume.
