In order to achieve racial equity for our students, the Board establishes the following goals: The District shall provide every student with equitable access to high quality and culturally relevant instruction, curriculum, support, facilities and other educational resources, even when this means differentiating resources to accomplish this goal. The District shall create multiple pathways to success in order to meet the needs of our diverse students, and shall actively encourage, support and expect high academic achievement for students from all racial groups. Find many great new & used options and get the best deals for Charting Reform, Achieving Equity in a Diverse Nation. by Sunderman, L. New.# at the best online prices at eBay! Used-Very Good: The book will be clean without any major stains or markings, the spine will be in excellent shape with only minor creasing, no pages will be missing and the cover is likely to be very clean." See all Item description. About this item. Postage, Returns & Payments. Best-selling in Non-Fiction. Charting a Path for Growth. Nova Scotia Tax and Regulatory Review. Section One: The Review. Fifteen years ago, the case was made for regulatory and program reform, or what the task force called a rigorous, systematic review of every government function to determine whether it should be delivered by government, by others, or eliminated. The recent New Economy commission, chaired by Acadia University President Ray Ivany, told Nova Scotians in no uncertain terms why we have to change. The wealth of material related to regulatory reform and simplification was similarly voluminous and insightful.