Includes bibliographical references and index. In "Storytelling," the second section of the book, I will use Bakhtin's theory to offer a rhetorical analysis of storytelling as it occurs within the culture of AA. By rhetorical analysis, I broadly mean any interpretation that accounts for the transactions of author, audience, and text. Storytelling in Alcoholics Anonymous: A rhetorical analysis. Carbondale, IL: Southern Illinois University Press. Commentary: Clues in stories of sobriety. This work develops an ethical analysis of alcoholism. I apply Aristotle's virtue ethics to a social-psychological interpretation of one kind of alcoholism in order to both enhance our understanding of the phenomenon of alcoholism and to illustrate the pertinence of Aristotle's ethics for enlarging our understanding of contemporary problems such as alcoholism.
