It is a clear, concise, reverent, scriptural, and worship-producing collection of brief meditations on God. While these are meditations, they are based firmly upon truth revealed in the Scriptures. There are students of the Word who make this known by their use of technical language and in-depth analysis. William MacDonald was no mean student of the Word, but the sole result of reading this volume will not be occupation with the gifts of the author but with the God he has so beautiful Alone in Majesty book.
