FRENCH reconstruction should be considered in relationship to France's population problem, geographic location and natural resources, historical background and political psychology. This approach may appear ambitious and will be distasteful to a friend of mine who advocates a "League for the Promotion of Lack of Knowledge Between Nations," because, he contends, the more the people know each other, the more they quarrel. FRENCH reconstruction should be considered in relationship to France's population problem, geographic location and natural resources, historical background and political psychology.
